QUIET DAYS

QUIET DAYS

Do you feel you are neglecting your own spiritual life? You are not alone.

Many Christians – including great Christian leaders – have found that in the busyness of ministry they have neglected their own walk with God. Faced with this situation, wise Christians determine to put this right. If you recognise the need for more ‘quality time’ with God as well, we at Spurgeon’s College invite you to spend some days with us focusing on him. Since Spurgeon’s started running these days in 2015 they have proved a great help to many people.

Over the coming year we will be setting aside a series of Fridays to help you connect with God. Each of these days will begin at 10 am with a short chapel service, followed by two further services – at 12 noon and 3pm. Each service is designed to provide you with themes to reflect on. These will be led by College Staff and invited guests.

You can spend the day as you please, walking around the grounds and wood, reflecting in the chapel, enjoying a coffee in the café or sitting quietly. You will be given a guest bedroom for the day, which you can use as your own quiet space.

The day is open to all, whether you have been to Spurgeon’s many times, or have never been here before. We invite you to come and journey with us as we seek to put ‘first things first’ and draw nearer to God.

In taking time to pause and listen to God we can have our eyes lifted above our present circumstances, our energy renewed and our ‘first love’ restored. So often those who have regularly practised taking time out with God have seen their lives enriched and their ministries revolutionised. When we prioritise prayer we often find that our ministry and mission are reshaped in healthy ways. We are most effective as people of action when we are first and foremost people of prayer. Is God calling you to put ‘first things first’ and join us for one of these Friday Quiet Days?

PSALM 23:1-3

*The Lord will guide you always;
he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land
and will strengthen your frame.
You will be like a well-watered garden,
like a spring whose waters never fail.*
