

2020 Whitley Lecture

Finding a Friend

The Baptist Encounter with Judaism

Stories of anti-Semitism are everywhere in the news today. Is it possible that British Baptist Churches, in their preaching and pronouncements, are sometimes guilty of unwitting anti-Semitism or anti-Judaism? What is the state of play for Baptist-Jewish relations? Drawing on the positive side of our history and good practice, this lecture will offer constructive guidelines for encouraging a greater friendship between Baptists and Jews.

Spurgeon's College and Baptists Together are delighted to welcome Robert Parkinson who will deliver the 2020 Whitley Lecture. Robert is minister of Didsbury Baptist Church in Manchester, an associate tutor with Northern Baptist College and has many years experience in Jewish-Christian relations.

Wednesday 18 March 2020
11.15am

Spurgeon's College
South Norwood Hill
London
SE25 6DJ

